SCAM ALERT!

Kelly Gridley, AVP
Deposit Operations,
IMCU

What do scammers have in common? They evolve, they adapt and they never take a break! Let's discuss some current scams affecting consumers.

Home Improvement Scams

Are you doing some repairs, renovating a basement, updating a bathroom or remodeling your kitchen? Has someone promised you a deal you think you can't turn down? Your first step is to find a trustworthy contractor. Some signs that you are dealing with a scammer versus a reliable contractor include:

Scammers seek you out for the work. CLICK HERE TO READ MORE

Crypto Scams

Scammers are creative when it comes to persuading you to give up your personal information. They usually craft a story based on the victim they are targeting.

Maybe they say they have information on you or your family that they threaten to expose, maybe they offer a business opportunity, maybe it's a love interest online or maybe it's an investment scam. CLICK HERE TO READ MORE

INDIANA
Members Investment Services

We value our relationships with the IMCU members we serve, and we appreciate the confidence placed in us to help build stable financial futures. The financial world can seem complex and confusing to those that don't navigate it every day. That's why we, at Indiana Members Investment Services, make every effort to build confidence and trust by helping you understand the investment products and services offered and basing them on your objectives, risk tolerance, and goals. Solid financial foundations are important, but your trust is what we treasure most.
