WHAT SHOULD YOU DO WITH AN OLD 401(K)?

Most Americans are likely to change jobs multiple times during their career. Did you know that a 401(k)-retirement savings plan is portable when you leave a job. There are several different options available to you.

- Option 1: Keep the 401(k) plan where it is
- Option 2: Transfer the 401(k) plan to your new employer's plan
- Option 3: Roll over the 401(k) to an individual retirement account (IRA)
- Option 4: Cash out the old 401(k)

There are pros and cons to each option and Indiana Members Investment Services can evaluate them with you to help determine the best choice based on your goals.
